SIXTEEN deaths from cholera at Toulon, sixteen at Marseilles, and the hospitals rapidly filling. Ninety per cent. of the victims are women. Rumors of the disease at Nice.

THE Democratic nomination for President is hunting the man this time instead of the man hunting the nomination. Mistakes are seldom made under these prevailing conditions.

EX-GOVERNOR Myers, of Ohio, who is now abroad, would have preferred another candidate, but he has announced his intention to return to this country early in the fall and take the stump for Blaine.

Mrs. W. B. MUMFORD, whose husband, while acting Mayor of New Orleans in 1882, was interviewed at Kansas City on the circumstances of the affair. Her son swears that if Butler is nominated for the Presidency he will kill him.

THE buildings for the New Orleans Exposition are being crowded along with considerable speed and their completion is promised at an early day. This opens up the prospect that at least one exposition will have its buildings in a fair state of completion before the day fixed for its opening.

THE struggle for supremacy in light-giving between gas and electricity has taken on a new phase since the recent discovery of a Frenchman named Charles Chalmers. This inventor, it is said, can, with the aid of a simple globe of porcelain somewhat larger than an orange and piece with a number of little holes, obtain from an ordinary jet of gas a brilliant white light which does not confuse colors and is steadier, brighter and cheaper than the electric light.

THIS session of Congress lasted seven months. In that time there have been introduced in the Senate two thousand, three hundred and sixty-seven bills; ninety-seven joint resolutions, and in the House five thousand, five hundred and seven bills and two hundred and eighty-four resolutions have passed both Houses and become laws by executive approval, and sixty House bills and thirty-two House resolutions have become laws in the same manner.

THE Springfield Republican says: The Democrats, to-day, are intrusted with the administration of three-fifths of the whole number of States. For the second time since the war they are in a majority of the National House of Representatives. The Democratic policy upon both occasions, when they have been in power in the House, has been one of conservatism and economy. During the period of financial issues the Democratic party suffered to a greater extent than the Republicans, from the Western crisis for repudiation and inflation, but upon nearly all the great financial measures, the best men of both parties were compelled to unite to save them. Since these issues were measurably settled by the resumption of specie payment, the Democratic party has laid itself open to criticism more by its timidity and conservatism than by the exhibition of any other quality. In the greatest test of patriotism, to which the Democratic party has been subjected since the war—that of peaceable submission to the injustice of electoral count of 1877—the conduct of the party leaders will receive and deserve the highest praise of history.

FOR and About Women.

An old friend of Thackeray, who has lately been abroad, says the novelist's wife is still living and suffering from mental derangement, carefully watched over in the house of a friend.

A farmer's wife in Burlington County, Virginia, disappeared unaccountably last week, and when her brother, who lives a considerable distance away heard of it, he sent word that he had dreamed three nights in succession of rushing his sister's body in a pool in a river. Search was made and the body found there.

Mrs. Blaine, according to a Washington correspondent, looks most imposing when she is not excited. She is a large woman who sits bolt upright in her corner of the carriage. Her face is a strong one. Her features are large and are so disposed as to convey a sense of power. They always wear the same proud expression.

The wife of Senator Harrison of Indiana, has decorated eighteen china dinner plates in a manner which was wholly her own idea. On each she has painted a bird of different species, and on the border of the plate is a line of English text, of poetry written by one of the best authors about that particular kind of bird.

An old woman in Swansea, Wales, hid $450 in gold in a sack and unluckily forgot about it, when the sack was filled with corn and sent to the mill. But she thought of it at last, rushed home, pulled away the bag and found the miller wondering and swearing at a great rate because his millstones were clogged. The money was recovered but badly battered.

GEORGIA LYNCHING BEE

A Would-Be Rapist Taken from Jail and Shot.

Camp of the Cowboys Raided by the Indians, Four of Whom Were Killed—Assassination—Killed for Sedition.

CUTBERT, Ga., July 9.—At Fort Gaines, yesterday morning about 2 o'clock, a squad of about twelve masked men obtained possession of the keys from the Sheriff's office, and, quietly proceeding to the jail, took the negro, Alf. Hainey, who had been confined for an attempted outrage on Mrs. Fincher, in the upper portion of this county, on May 30, and going with him about a mile from town, shot him to death and left his body lying in the road near Brown's Mill, where it was found by early passers after daylight. The following card was found lying on the coat of the negro: "Our wives and daughters we protect. Art and decay we despise. We are the policy makers we desire. Tar and feathers match."

DURANGO, Colo., July 8.—The cow camp of Wm. H. Wilson, George T. West and Carlisle Johnson, were attacked by Southern Ute Indians in the western part of the La Platte County, near the Colorado river. Cook, cook for Wilson, and Adolf Laik, employed by West, were badly wounded. Four or five and a number wounded. The whites lost eleven horses killed and one hundred stolen. Their wagons and camp outfits were burned and provisions carried off.

CONGRESS REVIEWED.

Summary of the Proceedings of the Past Six Months.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The session of Congress which closes to-day lasted seven months. During that period 1,977 bills, and 281 joint resolutions were introduced in the two Houses—7,500 bills and 284 joint resolutions in the House, and 2,308 bills and 97 joint resolutions in the Senate. Of this immense list the legislative hoppers only 367 bills have become laws. Of these 328 originated in the House and 39 in the Senate. Out of the fourteen annual appropriation bills, 333 laws have been enacted during the session. Of these the number which are of national interest or importance are counted on one's fingers. The bill reducing the rate of postage on second-class matter to individuals to one cent per bill establishing a bureau of labor statistics and a bureau of animal industry; the Dingley Shipping Bill and the enactments embraced in the Customs Bill looking to securing more intimate commercial relations with South American States, are about the only measures affecting, or likely to affect generally, the remainder of the session. The regular appropriation bills passed at the session, taking the figures furnished by Mr. Randall, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, is $177,367,478. Last year the same amount of these bills was $228,274,360. Of $86,375,000 appropriated last year for pensions there is an estimated unexpended balance of $85,000,000, which is reappropriated and made available for this year. This year there is appropriated for current expenses of the navy $5,797,717 for six months, $2,130,100 to complete naval vessels, and six or eight million more will be required to defray the expense of all of the current year. The miscellaneous deficiency appropriations this year amount, in round numbers, to about $4,000,000, against about $2,000,000 last year; $4,000,000 of this deficiency for this year, is to pay rebate on tobacco claims.

"JESSE JAMES GANG."

Juveniles Who Are Acting the Role of Highwaymen.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—A new juvenile "Jesse James" gang has sprung up in the northern part of Camden, but, unlike the gang recently dispersed, these boys do not sink into houses to steal, relying on the straightforward point of a revolver to compel people to surrender their valuable articles. Harry Smith and Frank St. George are the reputed leaders of the lads, who range from ten to fourteen years. This forenoon they started in the war path, and at Second and York streets they came upon James Matthews, who lives in the neighborhood. They induced the boy to take a walk with them, their destination being a place known as Bailey's swamp. After leading their victim to the proper spot, the gang surrounded him and ordered him to throw up his hands, one of them presenting a 44-caliber revolver at his head and threatening to shoot if he made any outcry. However, however, he cried for help at the top of his voice, and was rewarded by hearing some one hastening to his rescue. The young highwayman fled. The boy was taken to his home, and his father swore out a warrant before Justice Schmidt against Smith and St. George, who were arrested and held to bail for a hearing. The revolver was found on the boys, but no cartridges were found in the chambers. At the swamp, however, several cartridges were found of the same caliber as the revolver. The boys, it is supposed, fearing arrest, drew the cartridges and threw them away.

THE CHOLERA PLAQUE.

PARIS, July 9.—The official reports state that seventeen deaths from cholera have occurred at Toulon during the past twenty-four hours, and at Marseilles thirteen. Despite the official reports giving thirteen deaths from cholera at Marseilles yesterday, it is supposed that the actual number is seventeen.

MARSEILLES, July 8.—Fourteen deaths from cholera last evening. The panic is increasing, and all who can are leaving. General uneasiness prevails.

PARIS, July 9.—It is feared the exodus from Marseilles and Toulon will result in spreading the cholera. The migration from Paris to the seaside is unexampled.

Prohibition Not Observed in Iowa.

DUBUQUE, Ia., July 9.—This is the fourth day since the prohibition law was to go into operation. So far it has had little visible effect upon the liquor interests of this city. The breweries closed Sunday, but are to-day all running as usual. A large number of saloons also closed Sunday, but they, too, to-day are openly dispensing all kinds of liquors. So far, not a single saloon out of 120 licensed by the city are closed to-day. Beyond a disposition to close Sundays and holidays, and exercise more care in selling, saloons have determined to pay no attention to the law. Wholesale dealers seem to be as active as ever, but packages have assumed new shapes and seek different channels of transportation.

DICK HENDERSON, colored, was taken from the Russellville (Ky.) jail by an armed mob and hanged. He was charged with shooting a young white boy, who is not seriously hurt.
